TABLE TALK. - When people come to see us we foolishly prattle, and think it necessary in order to be hospitable; but such conversations are chalk eggs. The honest man must keep taith with himself; his sheet-an-chor is sincerity. Losing this, he loses the talent of his talent. What we want is not your activity, nor your interference, but your habitual truth. Stay at home. The way to have large occasional views is to have large habitual views. Let nature bear the expense; let our eyes meet. Look not abroad for materials for conversation, but rest. First feel your subject fully; then discourse, if speaking be more grateful than silence. Make yourself

the vehicle of truth. Another hindrance is the disposition to fun and until the seed of them. They are condiments, inestimable for sauce, but corrupting food. You go away from such banquets hollow and ashamed. There are people that cannot be cultivated; you must keep them down and quiet them as you can; people on which speech makes no impression. Shun the contrary side. Never worry people with your complaints. Never name sick-ness, and, above all, beware of unmuzzling the valetudinarian.

Some western court has defined a town to be "a place where whisky is sold." He would define a city as a place where a man could get into a cafe, and while drinking his cup of coffee, meet and converse with men of letters and of science, and enjoy the refreshment of society. Our institutions of daily necessity can be arranged to secure such benefits, and this should be the aim of every philanthropist at home. We should welcome every means to promote the intercourse of men. We should overcome our national spites .- Emerson.

SALE OF RAILWAY STOCK .- The San Jose Courier of the 10th instant, says:

The Board of Supervisors, now in session in this city, have effected a sale of the capital stock of Santa Clara county in the San Francisco and San Jose Railroad Company. Peter Donahue, C. B. Polhemus and H. M. Newh San Francisco, are the purchasers. There were two thousand shares, for which they pay the par value, or two hundred thousand dollars, either in Legal Tender Notes or in the Railroad Bonds of the county. Payment is to be made within eighteen months from the 4th of April, together with interest on all outstanding bouds after the 8th day of October next.

GRAVEL AND LIME FOR FOWLS .-It should be borne in mind that gravel should be provided for fowls if they are shut up where they cannot obtain it. Their health greatly depends upon it. Lime, or old mortar, is also necessary for laying hens. There cannot be eggs without shells, nor shells without the material is supplied

SATURDAY MORNING. MARCH. 11, 1865

The Overland Mail Service.

We perceive by correspondence from Washington, in one of our exchanges. that, when the proposition to create a Department of the Plains was under consideration, Senator Conness. of California, "volunteered the opinion" that the contractors for carrying the mails across the continent were not without complicity in the interruptions of the service by Indians, so frequent of late.

Now, we have heard this accusa tion often made before, and believe there are many in California, who are impressed with its truth. But those who have means of knowing the difficulties to be overcome in this service and know the facts with regard to the Indian disturbances, which now interrupt the line eastward and have heretofore made the western exceedingly precarious, also know how utterly without foundation is such an opinion. We doubt not Mr. Conness was fully persuaded of the truth of those allegations, but we venture that, those from whom he drew his information, took counsel of their suspicions and had no knowledge of the facts. If those, who find it so easy to cavil at impossibilities, would only undertake a journey across these plains at the present, or indeed almost any other. time, they would have an opportunity of judging more correctly of the insuperable difficulties to be encountered. and possibly, might come to a more just conclusion than forming imaginary altianees between contractors and Indians, to defeat the efficiency of the service. Were such a combination possible, it is difficult to perceive what benefit could be hoped commensurate with the evils certain to result not alone to the community, but in the permanent injury of Less than two years since the western line was suffering under a similar infliction to that which has overtaken the castern, and we all know with what difficulty the line was continued in operation at that time. Indeed, it was only by the efficient co-operation of the military and the indefatiguable exertions of all concerned, that the company were enabled to keep the line unbroken. Had Sheridan on the way down; he reached the Indian forays then been accompanied by a snow blockade, as is and has have been simply impossible.

Instead of being subject to continual censure, both the eastern and western companies deserve the gratitude of the public whom they serve under difficulties which would appal any but the town Early, with a small rebel force, most enterprising. In this opinion we then was. doubt not we are sustained by every man of every community along the line

The only wonder, at present, is how the stages eastward are enabled to run at all, or, how men can be induced to encounter the inclemency of such severe weather among the drifted and almost this. impassable snows that now cover the mountain solitudes crossed by the Overland stage line. At this moment the castward bound stage, which left Salt Lake City three days since, is plowing its weary way through the drifts between here and Bear River, less than one hundred miles distant. The Overland Companies are doing excellent service, all assertions to the contrary not withstanding, and. as we believe, are it. using every reasonable exertion to make that service efficient.

THE loyal citizens of Philadelphia have presented to Lieut. Gen. Grant a bandsome bouse, eligantly furnished, in that city, as a substantial testimony of their high appreciation of his services in the cause of his country.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY VEDETTE.

Philadelphia, March 8th. The Raleigh Progress says: The Federals are concentrating a force of 40,000 men at Newbern, which will soon be ready to strike Gen. Lee's army in conjunction with Sherman's forces.

[Additional fereign news.] The London Times has an editorial on the official acts of the recent conference, and points significantly to Seward's admission that the proposition for a combined effort at some extrensic policy or scheme was deliberatly considered, and concedes that the North came best out of the affair, and says the arbitrament of war is accepted as fresh, with more desperate determination. We deplore its result but it must be more evident than ever that neutrality, if we are but allowed to maintain it, is the only policy for England.

New York, 9th. The World's Washington correspondent of the 28th, says, our advance. under Terry, is now 12 miles from here on the north-west branch of Cape Fear river with Hokes' troops confronting it on the other side. Sherman is reported to-day as being within 60 miles of this place. If that is the case, a junction will be easily made between Schofield's troops and his, and a forward movement to Richmond will be ordered at once.

Richmond papers still express the belief that Grant will attack Lee's lines around Richmond as soon as the ground will permit. The rebels believe that Grant has sent nearly all his cavalry from the armies of the Potomac and James river to Sheridan in the Shenan-

A meeting to obtain subscriptions of provisions for Lee's army was recently held in Danville, Va., and, in noticing it the Richmond Whig-says: Gen. Lee's men must be fed or we will lose all.

The Danville Register is assured that it does not enter into Lee's plans to abandon the rebel capital unless, as is very prudently and somewhat contradictory added, it becomes impossible to hold the city longer.

The Herald's Winchester correspondent says: deserters who have arrived at Winchester state that they passed Woodstock, thirty miles from his starting point. the first day, and though the been the case eastward, the task would rain was falling, roads very muddy, and streams nuch swollen, his troops were pushing forward rapidly. It was expected that on the third day they would reach Staunton, 18 miles up the valley, a short distance north of which

On Sunday, Richmond was excited with a rumor that Johnston had defeated Sherman and was investing the position taken up by the latter. The next day, however, Richmond papers admitted the falsity of the report, but claimed that Hampton had defeated Kilpatrick at Cheerow. This report, bowever, was brought by a railroad passenger who was the only one that knew anything of

The state of feeling in North Carolina is plainly evident from the tone of the press and recent events.. Nearly a whole company of the 6th N. C. Cavalry deserted a few days since and came into Newbern, bringing their horses and equipments. Negeoes are coming in in on, and both troops and people in that State are represented as hearthly sick of the war.

The Union prisoners confined at Florence were sent to Salisbury on the approach of Sherman. On their way many escaped and reached our lines at Newbern, under the guidance of negroes and loyal whites.

Arrangements have been made to exchange ten thousand prisoners at Wilmington, and they are now being forwarded.

The Tribune's Washington special says: about one hundred deserters took the oath of allegiance to-day and started North. They say far more are going South than North, and that dissatisfaction is general throughout the whole army; that Lee rode out through their camp and promised them more tood and clothes and urged them to stand by him: but they concluded it would'nt pay In the last thirty days there have been two thousand deserters received here, forty of whom were officers.

New York, March 9th. By the steamer Fulton, from Hilton Head the 6th : Everything is progressing favorably at Charleston; traders are beginning to open stores. General Hatch is in command of the northern district of the Department of the South. Gen. Schimmelpfening is in command at Charleston. The railroad is completed to Goose creek. General Potter advanced to the Santee river without opposition.

News has been received of the total destruction of Columbia, and at last accounts Sherman has arrived at Charlotte. Beauregard was hovering in his front. The 21st regiment, recruited in Charleston, has been mustered into service. be lights are soon to be lighted Sumter and Moultrie, and the channel is being made good for navigation. Several incendiary fires have taken place in Charleston.

Washington, March 9th. Information from the army of the Potomac says, all is quiet. The freshet is subsiding, and the exchange of prisoners is resumed.

A report is in circulation that Lynchburg is in our possession, but it cannot be traced to any trustworthy authority.

New York, March 9th. Mr. Watts Sherman, of the firm of Duncan, Sherman & Co., died at Madeira on the 20th of February.

New York. March 9th. The Emperor Maximilian, according to advices received to-day from Mexico. has received at a special audience Mr. Peter Campbell Scarlett, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of her Majesty Queen of England. Mr. Scarlett presented to the Emperor of Mexico several autograph letters from Queen Victoria The first of these letters is a formal one accrediting the minister. The second is a repition of the first, but is addressed to the Empress Charlotte - My best, beloved sister. The third is an acknowledgment of a letter sent by the Emperor to the Queen in June last, informing her officially of his accession to the throne of Mexico. The Queen expresses her interest in the welfare of Mexico, and her belief that the establishment of the empire is the beginning of a new and happy era for the country. Philadelphia, March 9th. The U. S. steamship Bermuda, from East and West Gulf blockading squadrons, has arrived at the navy yard. She reports that on the 24th of Feb., on an expedition under command of Brigham Newton, consisting of all the troops both white and colored, stationed at Key West, in the gunboats Honduras, Magnolia and Hendrick Hudson, started for the purpose of capturing St. Marks. The result of the expedition had not been heard of at the time the Bermuda sailed.

This morning Hon. Hugh McCullough formally entered upon his new duties as Secretary of the Treasury. The heads of the several bureaus of the department waited upon him in a body, and an address of welcome was made to him in their behalf by Judge Lewis, Commissioner of Internal Revenue. New York. March 9th. The World's Washington letter says: Senator Gwin recently stated that his departure for Paris was caused by informatiom he had received from trust. worthy sources, that the Province of Sonora had been ceded to France by a secret treaty, which would not be made public until after the entire pacification of Mexico by the French. and he went to Paris to arrange plans for colinizatien and to form an alliance of Califor.

nia and Sonora for the Empire. Virginia Senators in the rebel Congress, have been instructed to vote in favor of a bill to place negroes in the rebel army. The bill was defeated when before the Senate by only one vote; both Virginia members voted against it.

The Danville Register says the crisis of the war is rapidly approaching, and in a short time a heavy and decisive battle will be fought.

New York. March 10th.

The Herald's Winchester correspondent confirms the reported victory over Early by Sheridan, and says Sheridan has occupied Staunton. On his march up the valley to that point he had met with no material opposition. The report that Early himself was captured by She ridan is not confirmed. Rebel prisioners report a heavy Union force as advancing from East Town on Lynchburg, the capture of which place we have unconfirmed rumors.

The Herald's correspondent from the James says: there are indications of Lee's intention to abandon Richmond, and it is well understood that the removal of gove nment stores has been going on for some time. Large numbers of troops have recently been sent, it is presumed, to Lynchburg.

The Augusta Constitutionalist savs: The 15th and 17th corps with Sherman's command, has a baggage train three miles long. The 15th corps became drunk and pillaged Columbia, burning the entire length of Main street. Sherman ordered pillagers and burners to be shot. Two or three hundred citizens left with the Yankees. Most of the people remaining, are obliged to live in huts and their condition is dreadful. Sherman lett 200 head of beef cattle for the sick and wounded, and gave arms to the citizens to protect themselves from the negroes. Every article of subsistence was carried off; cellars, out-houses, etc., are being searched. The city was shelled furiously before taking possession. The same paper says there are 3,000 locomotives and cars penned up at Charlotte, and says Sherman will of course destroy this stock; they were heavily laden with stores. The Southers Erthe mails were lost everywhere.

The Richmond Whig says : Sherman's advance on Columbia was unexpected, sudden and surprising, and it found all unprepared, and he was cool enough to do anything. When his guns were heard in the city, the public, of course, for the first time, began to think of remaxing the government stores, and our little army gave way step by step until flanked out of their position, on the opposite side of the Congaree. when they fell back to the city, and then began upon the fork, getting off the stores, but the time was too short and much was left The worst feature of the whole scene was the plundering done by Wheeler's cavalry. It was done most systemati cally, as if they were trained to stealing Local Matters.

STABBING AFFRAY. - Some of the soldiers of Camp Douglas, while in town on Tuesday night last, engaged in a stabbing affray, and were doing some brutal work with brass knuckles. This is but another painful evidence to record of the doings of a few-very few, volunteers at this post, who will, despite the example set by their comrades in becoming Good Templars, still persist in swallowing the drugs and poisonous compounds which are sold in imitation of liquors.

Thank God that the instances of such acts of brutality and crime as that committel on Tuesday, are of not frequent occurrence among the Volunteers at Camp Douglas, and is to be regretted that three or four such men should com mit acts that naturally tend to the bad repute of a whole command.

We trust that the public will judge impartially, and not attribute the acts of a few to the countenance of their comrades; for such conduct is as disgusting and intolerable to the majority of the soldiers at this post, as it possibly can be to the community at large.

More Snow. It commenced snowing in this vicinity on Thursday evening. continuing all Thursday night and until 10 o'clock on Friday morning.

As we go to press. the eaves are dripping and snow melting, but there is every indication o another fall of snow. The clouds are heavy and black. March has been dreary thus far, having had, during the past 10 days, some of the coldest weather of this winter.

THE roads. we hear, throughout the settlements, are for miles almost entirely impassable, especially for freighted teams. From present indications, freighting to the Northern Mines cannot be resumed before the middle or last of May, and even then with difficulty.

St. PATRICK'S DAY .- As we are thoroughly loyal, we intend to celebrate the day by joining for the Union "forever and unseparable."

South Carolina seems to have few friends either North or South, and there is as cordial a hatred existing among the Southern people towards that obnoxious locality as even among loyal men. During General Sherman's march through Georgia he was continually asked why he did not go to South Caroline and devastate the entire state. Let such be the fate of all who have been leaders in the rebellion, damned to an eternity of infamy.

A MEMORIAL has been sent into Congress, signed by many of the most eminent men in the country, recommending the passage of a law giving preferment, in the civil service of the Government, to soldiers who have been dis abled during the war. This is an excellent move.

THE New York papers have com ed the publication of income lists returned to assessors, and the Tribbne says it is having an excellent effect in refreshing the memories of parties who had made mistakes in the amount of their incomes

SOMETHING ABOUT OUR CONGRESS MEN .- 1 Washington letter-writer gives some curious facts about present Congressmen. He says, Mr. Ames, of Massachusetts, is the richest, worth over two mill-ions; a Mr. Baldwin of the same State the largest; Mr. Clay, of Kentucky, the tallest; Mr. Cox, of Ohio, the smallest; Mr. Mc-Clurg, of Missouri, the shortest; Freight to Beise City: General Dumont, of Indiana, the most productive, being the father of nineteen children ; Mr. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, the oldest, 73 years; General Garfield, of Ohio, the youngest, 32 years; Mr. Windom, of Minnesota, the handsomest; Mr. Kelly, of Pennsylvania, and Voorhees, of Indiana, the best speakers; Mr. Cox, of Ohio, and Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, the best parliamentarians; Mr. Kasson, of Iowa, and Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio, the readiest debators; Mr. Clay, of Kentucky, the largest farmer, having 6,500 acres of land, 175 slaves, 200 sheep, and 150 blooded cattle; while Mr. Grinnell, of Iowa, has 6,600 sheep; Mr. Wallace, of Idaho, lives the farthest from Washington, and draws $6,397 for mileage, and Davis, of Maryland, the nearest, his mileage being only $32. Mr. Frank, of New York, is the best penman, and Mr. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, the poor-The House has twenty-five members with bald heads, thirty with moustaches, and two with wigs.

LIEUTENANT S. W. PRESTON, U. S. N.—This officer, killed in the attack on Fort Fisher, while acting as Flag Lieutenant of the fleet of Rear Anmiral Porter, was a young officer that had more than once distinguished himself by his gallantry. He was born in Canada, but at an early age removed to Illinois, from which State he was appointed (October 4, 1858) to the navy. He served as midshipman and ensign until August 1, 1862, when he was promoted Lieutenant. During the first attack on Charleston by the fleet under Rear Admiral Dahlgren, Lieutenant Preston was Flag Lieutenant of the Wabash, and afterwards commanded the Ironsides. In the attack which was subsequently made on Sumter, he acted on the staff of Rear Admiral Dahlgren, and was captured on the ruins of the fort. He had been the first to land, and was captured. He was sent to Columbia (S. C.,) where he remained in prison fourteen months. He had just returned from this imprisonment, when he was assigned to duty with the North Atlantic squadron. He was offered a long furlough, in consideration of his confinement, but declined it, and French Corsets, Cambric Handkerreported at once for duty.

THE SPANISH MERINO SHEEP .-At the late meeting of the Wool Growers' Association of Vermont, a resolution was passed to the effect that as great improvements have been made in breeding the Merino sheep since its introduction into the United States, that the name "Improved Spanish Merino" be adopted as the most appropriate to the thoroughbred Spanish sheep in New England, and that agricultural societies be requested to designate them as
